49.402-4

this 49.402–3, the contracting officer determines that a termination for default is proper, the contracting officer shall issue a notice of termination stating—

- (1) The contract number and date;
- (2) The acts or omissions constituting the default;
- (3) That the contractor's right to proceed further under the contract (or a specified portion of the contract) is terminated;
- (4) That the supplies or services terminated may be purchased against the contractor's account, and that the contractor will be held liable for any excess costs:
- (5) If the contracting officer has determined that the failure to perform is not excusable, that the notice of termination constitutes such decision, and that the contractor has the right to appeal such decision under the Disputes clause;
- (6) That the Government reserves all rights and remedies provided by law or under the contract, in addition to charging excess costs; and
- (7) That the notice constitutes a decision that the contractor is in default as specified and that the contractor has the right to appeal under the Disputes clause.
- (h) The contracting officer shall make the same distribution of the termination notice as was made of the contract. A copy shall also be furnished to the contractor's surety, if any, when the notice is furnished to the contractor. The surety should be requested to advise if it desires to arrange for completion of the work. In addition, the contracting officer shall notify the disbursing officer to withhold further payments under the terminated contract, pending further advice, which should be furnished at the earliest practicable time.
- (i) In the case of a construction contract, promptly after issuance of the termination notice, the contracting officer shall determine the manner in which the work is to be completed and whether the materials, appliances, and plant that are on the site will be needed
- (j) If the contracting officer determines before issuing the termination notice that the failure to perform is excusable, the contract shall not be terminated for default. If termination is in the Government's interest, the contracting officer may terminate the contract for the convenience of the Government.

(k) If the contracting officer has not been able to determine, before issuance of the notice of termination whether the contractor's failure to perform is excusable, the contracting officer shall make a written decision on that point as soon as practicable after issuance of the notice of termination. The decision shall be delivered promptly to the contractor with a notification that the contractor has the right to appeal as specified in the Disputes clause.

49.402-4 Procedure in lieu of termination for default.

The following courses of action, among others, are available to the contracting officer in lieu of termination for default when in the Government's interest:

- (a) Permit the contractor, the surety, or the guarantor, to continue performance of the contract under a revised delivery schedule.
- (b) Permit the contractor to continue performance of the contract by means of a subcontract or other business arrangement with an acceptable third party, provided the rights of the Government are adequately preserved.
- (c) If the requirement for the supplies and services in the contract no longer exists, and the contractor is not liable to the Government for damages as provided in 49.402–7, execute a no-cost termination settlement agreement using the formats in 49.603–6 and 49.603–7 as a guide

49.402-5 Memorandum by the contracting officer.

When a contract is terminated for default or a procedure authorized by 49.402–4 is followed, the contracting officer shall prepare a memorandum for the contract file explaining the reasons for the action taken.

49.402-6 Repurchase against contractor's account.

(a) When the supplies or services are still required after termination, the
